

East Palo Alto Peace and Unity March and Rally

Rebecca Matthews/EPA Today
Representatives from various local and civic organizations participated in the Peace and Unity March and Rally.

If the first three letters of UNItY are: You and I, then it was most prevalent on Saturday during the East Palo Alto Peace and Unity March and Rally.

Residents, community organizations, friends and family all came out in resounding, unprecedented numbers to the tune of 1000 plus.

Organizers gathered at 8:00 a.m. in the morning to feed marchers a continental breakfast and distribute T-shirts that stated I LOVE EPA! It could not have been more evident by the turn-out that from beginning to end Black, White, Latino, Samoan, Tongan, young and old, we all marched as one. Everyone marched with one thought in mind, STOP THE VIOLENCE!

Rebecca Matthews
East Palo Alto resident